POL 200: Analyzing Politics
Library Lab

Julie Gilbert
Lab Goals Revisited

Make You a Better Researcher – Find the Light Switch

• Identify some of the research conversations occurring in Political Science

• Develop skills and familiarity with tools to access those conversations

• Immerse yourselves in the conversation so that you can contribute meaningfully to it
Work Day Resources

Reflection Questions:
- What are the gaps in my research? What questions haven’t I answered yet?
- Am I able to describe fully the conversations surrounding my topic? If not, what are my next steps?
- Am I using the full range of resources available to me? Like the stuff listed on the library guide, among others?
